SIXTH AVENUE AND TWENTY-THIRD STREET.

SUED FOR A WOMAN'S LOVE.

Meyerson Wants Withum to Pay Him $2,500 Damages.

Husband Charged with Encouraging His Wife's Infidelity.

David Meyerson, of 60 West Third street, this city, has begun an action against Frederick Withum, of 31 Block street, in the Court of Common Pleas to recover $2,500 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections.

Withum was arrested on July 12, and confined in Ludlow Street Jail until he procured bail in the sum of $500. He is charged with writing letters to Mrs. Meyerson under the names of Frank Withum and George Thompson, by which he persuaded her to leave her husband.

Meyerson says that his wife left him on Feb. 8 last, and that he found her in Albany after a long search. She was living with Withum, and after much trouble he induced her to return home with him on July 1. He charges that on July 1, two days after Withum again persuaded his wife to leave him, and this time took her to Chicago. He does not know where she now is.

Withum denies the charges against him and claims that Meyerson, by his own wrong acts, caused his wife to leave him. He alleges that Meyerson did leave his wife after the Spring of 1890, and that he left Withum to support her. They parted by mutual consent.

She says that from that time to the present time she earned her living as a public woman, and became acquainted with Withum. She says that both her husband and her lawyer told her that they did not wish to prosecute the case if Withum would leave town. After the parties had been obtained it was found that Withum had in the mean time been released from jail without the knowledge of his own lawyer.

FLEMING FELL TO HIS DEATH.

Terrible Plunge from the Roof or Window of a Factory Building.

Some Say Suicide but Others Declare It An Accident.

The coroner has been asked to investigate the death of John Fleming, who either jumped or fell from the roof or fourth floor window of the factory building 79 and 81 Crosby street. It was thought at first that Fleming was engaged in burglary and met his death by accident.

About 10:30 o'clock last night Mrs. Shea, who lives at 44 Marion street, was pushing her children to sleep when she was startled by a crash outside her window.

The house in which she lives is in the rear of the building on Crosby street, and there is only a narrow courtyard between.

Mrs. Shea looked out and saw a man hanging on top of a wire screen covered over a skylight of the factory. She called a policeman.

There was considerable trouble getting the man out, as no entrance could be found. The policeman, who was called, had to get over a wall from the rear of the Marion street house and climb down the chimney.

There was great delay in getting an ambulance to the scene, and it was not until about 11 o'clock that the body was removed.

While waiting for the ambulance the policeman tried to learn the dying man's name. He said that he was a man of about 35 years of age, and was dressed in a dark suit and a light shirt. He had no shoes, coat or vest on. There was nothing in his pockets by which his identity could be established.

Later in the day the body was identified as that of John Fleming, twenty-one years old, who worked in the building on Crosby street.

He was employed as a trimmer by S. T. Mills, a hatter, who lives at 78 Crosby street. It was stated that Fleming had been in Mills's employ for the past ten
